

About The Federal Reserve

The United States of America —
Federation of States

The Federal Reserve is a private banking cartel that has a contract to buy Treasury Bonds at a discount and issue currency based on the Treasury Bonds.

Who issues the Treasury Bonds? The Department of Treasury of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, a giant foreign Municipal corporation, whose name is emblazoned on every "bill" issued.

What do the Treasury bonds represent? The future value of your labor.

So they are selling something that doesn't belong to them—the value of your labor in the future—to the Federal Reserve at a bargain rate, and the Federal Reserve is issuing I.O.U.s (based on your credit) at interest.

Then they extract the cost of all this from you, through taxes, all of which have been implemented under the so-called Sixteenth Amendment—which was never ratified by nor authorized to be implemented in the States of the Union—under the terms of a labor contract you are not party to, don't benefit from, and aren't even aware of.

As we explained in our small book, "Blood Money", this leaves living people in bondage, either peonage (indentured servitude) or outright enslavement—both of which have been outlawed worldwide since 1926.

In this case, it presumes what appears to be a public interest (that is, government interest) in your private asset—the value of your labor—and creates a punitive system of taxation to extract it from you.

Upon closer examination though, you find that what "appears to be" a public interest, is actually a private commercial interest being disguised as a public interest. The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA Corporation isn't even American.

At the present moment, we can't find evidence that it is licensed to do business in this country, much less enabled to tax anyone.

So let's peel another layer of this stinky onion. How could such a "system" exist in this day and age, and especially, how could it exist in The United States?

It exists as a "private contract system" imposed on Federal employees and their dependents as a condition of employment.

The same people who engineered this "system" then conveniently redefined nearly everyone living in this country as a “federal employee or dependent” by registering American babies as British Subjects and later, as Municipal “citizens of the United States” — without disclosure, without consent, they just “presumed” their own foreign citizenship obligations on the American people they were supposed to be providing with certain enumerated services in “good faith”.

Does this sound like “good faith service” —or abject criminality and international commercial crime?

Our misdirected Public Servants have not only accepted a form of peonage (military personnel) or enslavement (federal civil service) for themselves as a private contractual obligation of their employment, but they have conspired to drag everyone else down with them.

In terms of international law, they have been unknowingly (for the most part) unlawfully converting the political status of their fellow Americans, and then, have human trafficked those same Americans (that they are supposed to be serving in good faith), and engaged in a vast identity theft-credit hacking scheme against their countrymen, who are their actual employers.

By operating under color of law and conditions of secrecy, they’ve gotten away with this for over a hundred years.

When cornered and presented with the evidence of their “misadministration”, their response was to come up with an even worse and more diabolical commercial enslavement scheme: transhumanism.

As they were losing their set up for registering American babies as British Subjects, they hit upon the idea of injecting everyone with a scrap of patented engineered mRNA which would attach to the human genome and establish a commercial ownership interest for the patent holders in the (purportedly) new Genetically Modified Organism thus created — the so-called “transhuman”, which would, of course, have no human rights and no recourse from eternal enslavement.

It was at this point that we said, enough, we don’t care if the Bank for International Settlements claims sovereign nation status for itself; we don’t care if the Pope wears red silk underwear and garters; we don’t care that those who are responsible for administering the law are breaking it on a scale that is unimaginable.

We’re the image of God, and we aren’t putting up with it anymore.

So here we are, jackhammers and hand-cuffs in hand.

Those who planned all this as the fate of their fellow human beings and who assumed that the nasty entities they were dealing with were the only authorities in the Universe, will be chagrined to learn that, no, there are far greater powers that arrived here, right on schedule, in 2012.

Those Powers remain with us and are well-aware that we have chosen a far different pathway forward for humanity.

This is what all this talk about 3D and 5D and “making a choice” is all about. Do you want to be a semi-robotic slave owned by DARPA and more-than-half crazy eugenics dabblers, or reign as a free soul and caretaker of this planet?

It should be a simple choice.

Obviously, the Federal Reserve is a crime syndicate and even if we were to extend individual clemency to the other central banks, the fraud and criminality sponsored by the Federal Reserve has tainted the entire central bank system, which—it must be admitted, was founded on licensing the otherwise well-known crime of commodity rigging.

How do we expect to allow a crime, licensed or not, and engender anything but more crime? It's like expecting onion seeds to breed carrots.

It's not only the Federal Reserve going down, it's the entire Central Bank System. It's not just the IRS being dissolved, it's the Internal Revenue Service, too. It's not just the Municipal COURTS being shut down, it's the District Court System and all its State-of-State franchises, also.

A few days ago, the corporation posing as what was left of the United States Government heard the astonishing news that it isn't a lawful government and has no special powers. In fairness, we have been telling them this for over thirty years, but the message driven home by their own experts at the U.S. Supreme Court was finally heard.

Executive Orders apply only to corporation employees and internal corporation affairs. The illegal commercial mercenary occupation of our country and many other countries is at an end. The illegal confiscation of private property and all these evil agendas seeking to establish ownership interests against the assets of living people using DNA and undisclosed and unconscionable contracting processes, is not only grinding to a halt, it's being reversed.

Great joy will fill the Earth.

Don't fear the "loss" of evil, rejoice.

And as for Mr. Trump, his corporation still has a contract to defend this country, but in the days to come, no country and no people will need to spend large quantities of their energy building war machines.

Behold, I make all things new.... the people who dwelled in darkness have seen a great light. Now, that light will be renewed, made manifest, and with it, the truth.

This light will gradually dawn in your minds and you will look back in wonder and ask — how could we be fooled by something as evil as the Federal Reserve System? How could we be tricked into doing evil to ourselves and our fellowman? And for what? Pieces of paper?

How could we be sold the value of our own labor and our own credit at interest?

You will be fully astonished when the Spirit of Falsehood has left the Earth and the utter senselessness of what you and earlier generations experienced is revealed.

We leave you with the greeting of the Angels: "Fear not!"

This destruction is the destruction of hidden evil in your midst, the destruction of a wanton parasite that has ruined your peace and health, your joy and your families — and worked endlessly to destroy your freedom.
