

Brits, Bunko, and Betrayal

Here's the real deal on George Soros, brought to you by Promethean Action — which, like our researchers, long ago discerned the role of the British Government as the Source of continued Colonialist crimes, regime changes, and commercial predation upon humanity.

It should not surprise us that George Soros has been their creation, too:

Everything that Promethean Action is bringing forward is information that we have either already brought forward or which we echo.

It's always the Brits at the bottom of every dog pile — reliably, monotonously so.

The difference between our American Government and our research and the research of Promethean Action is that our research goes much deeper into history — only to find the same thing, century after century: Britain and Rome, always at the bottom of every war, every economic collapse, and always pulling some kind of scam, heist, or other criminal action. Like this:

Please understand that our soldiers and sailors were being used as cheap mercenaries by the British Crown — a fact and status that was kept studiously secret from them.

Like the gold that vanished in the wreckage of Building Seven and other World Trade Center vaults. Like the gold from the Vatican that the same persons have commandeered.

The actual roles and ownerships and circumstances have been kept secret from the public and pursued under color of law.

We all have to wake up and put an end to the British Apologia for Colonialism and theft. The “benefits” they offer are not benefits. We didn't ask for these “benefits” or want them, and don't consider their contributions to be anything we cannot or do not provide for ourselves.

The entire idea that we can't take care of ourselves, when we in fact provide for their care as well as our own is ludicrous.

However, as long as we let the Globalists threaten us with one wrong path and let the British Navy threaten us with another wrong path — so that no matter what we do, we wind up where we don't want to be — we will be pawns in their ugly self-interested game.

Be astute enough to turn on your own Shinola Sensors and look hard at what Donald Trump is doing.

Yes, he is disrupting the international criminal cartels that have been involved in such gross crimes as drug smuggling, counterfeiting, human trafficking, organ harvesting and more.

Yes, he is putting an end to the immigration crisis.

He is also putting an end to the trillion-dollar insurance industry fraud.

For these initiatives we are truly grateful.

We aren't happy with the theft of gold and silver and land that belongs to the American people and which does not belong to the British Crown.

They do not have a legitimate management contract or valid citizenship relationship with the actual owners, and need to observe the limitations of the contract they have a claim to.

We aren't happy with the Globalist "regional government" playbook that Trump is following — joining Canada, the US, and Mexico, with Greenland and other bits thrown in, to create all sorts of additional Territorial "States" and further clouding national identity.

We aren't happy that Mr. Trump and his Administration continue to try to skirt the main issue, which is not only the British deceit, breach of trust, and criminal activity in violation of their service contract, but is also their steadfast failure to recognize the fact that our American Government is still here, still competent to make decisions for itself, and still owed the respect of our employees.

It isn't to their advantage to recognize their employers. Doing so immediately shows them up for the Con Artists, Oath Breakers, and False Friends that they have been. Nonetheless, making a clean breast of it is the only way to go forward without the taint of fraud and breach of trust following ever-afterward.

Mr. Trump- we recognize your Naval Office as Commander-in-Chief, and we observe that we, at least, are not at sea, not confused about who we are or where we come from. We are not British Subjects. We are not Federal citizens of any kind.

It's time — indeed, past time — for you, Mr. Trump, to recognize these facts and remove the Internal Revenue Service, the District Court System, the Property Tax system, the so-called Franchise Tax system, also the Utility Tax system, and the State-of-State mortgage system, and all claims of any National Debt.
