

If It's Not Good for Everyone....

The old saying applies: "If it's not good for everyone, it's not good."

Period. End of sentence. End of transmission. End of Truth.

Here's an example of what the Fallen have done on the Earth:

"God sent two angels separately, to give God's command regarding American gold and the true fiduciary, to the Philippines Royal Family (because the first Angel was not diplomatic or patient; she had suffered too much. She became so frustrated with them, she told them that if they disobeyed God's command, their bloodline would be wiped out). Both Angels were able to prove their identity as they were able to materialize in Angelic form and with all Angelic gifts in their abilities...."

They violated Divine Law by appearing to men in "angelic form". God does not allow faithful angels to bully men by appearing in their angelic form.

They lied about "God's command" — the True God doesn't coerce or threaten anyone. We obey out of love and gratitude, not fear.

Fallen angels have some but not all angelic gifts embedded in their DNA. One of the principal parts they lost is their direct connection to the Creator and Creation as a whole.

They can no longer call upon or command Gideon's Army. They can no longer find their way home to Heaven. Their personal portals have all been cut off as a result of their own actions and decisions.

This is the sort of thing I have to deal with every day. Lies upon lies. Impersonators upon impersonators. Don't believe signs you don't know— for even if they are signs of divinity and power, you do not know the history of these appearances.

Would the True God authorize the theft of American gold by the Royal Family of the Philippines —assuming such "royalty" exists — or anyone else?

No, not in a million years. Literally.

So, just like Donald Trump, with different excuses for it, theft is theft.

The Fallen are fallen. The Heavenly Host claims victory over them and establishes the Truth which is always and forever respectful and kind and true for everyone, everywhere.

The Royal Family of the Philippines is put on Notice that they have received False Information from False Emissaries and furthermore, Notice that they are not Trustees over the American gold that was left in "good faith" in the Philippines.

That gold was taken offshore for alleged "safe keeping" by the United States Navy acting under the misdirection of the British Crown and stashed in the Philippines without the knowledge or consent of the actual owners and the actual government of this country.

We have the records and we know the Truth.
