Take Notice, All to Whom These Presents Come: Notice to Principals is Notice to Agents; Notice to Agents is Notice to Principals.

We have attacked the laborious and convoluted history of the 2008 market meltdown and the fraudulent “answer” of the central banks to their self-determined crisis, but we could never break it all down succinctly.

This man, Yanis Varoufakis, does that breakdown in incredibly short order. A couple of minutes will give you all the low points you need to know: <https://www.youtube.com/shorts/VwrTYz1N7W4>

What he describes is a gross crime against humanity, a virtual theft of the future of humanity, with the prospective labor and asset wealth of hundreds of future generations handed out like sugar candy to the tech oligarchs and commercial banks, with no rhyme, no reason, and no regulation or restriction.

What the Central Banks did was totally fraudulent, and what the tech giants and other corporations and the commercial banks have done ever since — which Varoufakis also accurately describes, is even more criminal.

The Odious Debt they created must be set aside and the form of “money” — the Federal Reserve Notes they used to do this — must be withdrawn from the market and erased from the “money of account” ledgers.

Their use of the Federal Reserve Notes was criminal on multiple levels, as the FRNs should have been removed from the markets in 2009 when the Federal Reserve System went bankrupt. They knowingly used an abandoned currency to monetize this gross expansion of corporate credit worldwide, and on top of that, FRNs were always defined as a domestic currency replacement, not an international currency at all.

Three quadrillion 500 trillion.... you are talking about hundreds of years worth of planetary GDPs issued as debt, to say nothing of the interest they would charge for this “loan”. And it was all bogus. All imaginary. All “delegalized”. All based on an abandoned domestic currency.

The sheer incompetence and audacity combined is enough to make a sane person scream: “Are you all nuts?”

The living people who were forced under duress to use this money substitute in the first place must be reimbursed with our prepaid Heritage Dollar currency; the commercial corporations that did not receive purloined credit as part of this boondoggle must also be given prepaid Heritage Dollar currency to make up for the Federal Reserve Dollars they will have to turn in and cancel.

The guilty parties, the banks and securities firms and individuals in receipt of this vast purloined credit, the commercial corporations and individuals involved in this, must be divested.

This means instant bankruptcy for the corporations and commercial banks in receipt of this purloined credit and also instant bankruptcy for the CEO's and Boards of Directors and others in receipt of this stolen credit belonging to the living people of this planet.

All the central banks are complicit in this bizarre scheme, plus the Bank for International Settlements which is most responsible of all, together with the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund, and the Federal Reserve which technically hasn't existed since 2011, must all be collapsed in favor of their creditors — the living people and lawful national governments.

All the Odious Debt must be cancelled. A true Jubilee must be declared. No "Central Bank Currency" is allowed after this debacle, because Central Banks themselves stand outlawed for their egregious unreasoning crimes against humanity.

Set against this backdrop, we have news that the Trump Administration has "declared war" on Iran, something that the Trump Administration has no right or authority to do.

Welcome to Crazyville.

Our States have not declared any war and have never authorized any President to declare war.

We can say with great certainty that our country is not at war with Iran.

Mr. Trump acting as "Commander in Chief" is occupying a British Territorial Naval Office and should be flying the Union Jack not the Stars and Stripes, as his attack on Iran has nothing whatsoever to do with defending this country, and everything to do with creating and maintaining an illegal bank transfer monopoly for British banking interests.

QFS is just a worse, more politicized and coercive version of Rockefeller's SWIFT system. It's another, even worse, transfer monopoly.

Mr. Trump cannot possibly be acting for or under our auspices in this matter, though he is still flying our Title IV flag, which makes the attack on Iran a False Flag event by definition.

Now we pick up the thread of the financial and monetary system crimes against humanity, and note that at the same time as all this diversion is happening in the Middle East, the British Territorial U.S. Treasury (1789) has moved all Federal payments to their new Quantum Financial System — the answer they designed in advance as the solution to the problem they have deliberately caused.

Criminals should not profit from crimes that they have deliberately engendered — in this case, the District of Columbia is trying to foist off this gargantuan credit theft — 35,000 billion worth.

First, they destroy their own currency, then they provide their “answer” to this destruction in the form of an even more coercive bank transfer monopoly.

True to form, these devils have owed us money — actual money and credit, too, since 1861 — and never paid a dime toward their debts; and now, they are trying to pretend that we are tax cheats based on the trivial amounts we owe them for their actual delegated services.

This is why there is a legalizing provision in Federal Code Title XII for debt swaps known as Mutual Offset Credit Exchange Exemptions — remedy which they have never made accessible to the people of this country, and therefore, they have never legalized their actions seizing upon our gold and silver in forced and inequitable exchange for government debt notes functioning as legal tender.

They are sophisticated white collar crooks, and they’ve had a heyday asset stripping this country and enslaving its people for 165 years. They have done the same to innumerable other people and other countries, too, all under color of law, all under pretense of legality.

These are criminal acts, not political ones.

These corporations and those running them have been committing crimes of treason and usurpation and breach of trust in violation of their service contracts since 1861. They have committed many substitution frauds and false flag events while engaged in racketeering and money laundering activities related to tax fraud schemes and public trust fraud schemes and public bankruptcy fraud schemes and substitution schemes by the bushel.

All this theft in breach of trust has been expedited by members of the Bar Associations run out of the Inner City of London. They are all criminals guilty of practicing lawfare, otherwise known as personage and barratry and aggravated identity theft, against their actual employers.

They are worse than thieves, because they come garbed as purveyors of justice; they are worse than murderers, because they kill the dreams and faith and security of the living people and do so under color of law.

This present debacle is only the most recent of their schemes devoted to cheating, defrauding, and denigrating the living people of this planet.

By entering their Quantum Financial System, which is “offered” as the only means for people to get a tiny portion of their purloined credit assets back— and none of their physical assets — the victims of this Coercion Scheme are being “presumed” to be Federal citizens — either British Territorial U.S. Citizens or Municipal citizens of the United States or both; they are also being presumed to be voluntarily settling their claims against these renegade commercial and municipal corporations for far less than pennies on a dollar on average — with no full disclosure given.

An average American might be owed seven billion dollars and be paid a whole seventeen thousand by the QFS, because he is deceived by their non-disclosure and has no idea how much he is owed. Also, there is no mention at all of repaying or replacing the actual physical assets the same American is owed. All the QFS palaver is about replacing a very, very small amount of the credit these people are actually owed — not about replacing the gold and silver and land and corporation shares that they are also owed.

This is the same in all the other countries and applies just as much to Germans and French and Spaniards and Japanese and Filipinos and Aussies and Canadians and....

We have all been defrauded in the same way, using the same mechanics and the same schemes. We have all been enslaved by our own public employees and defrauded by commercial corporations that have inserted themselves as middlemen purveying “essential government services”.

These evil corporations propose to dig themselves out of the hole they have created by promoting colonialist rampages in Africa and the Middle East — illegal and immoral acts by which they hope to extract enough natural resources in the form of oil and gold, to bail themselves out again.

(1) Trump will glom onto and control Iran’s oil resources, or (2) Trump will literally and figuratively blow up the Straits of Hormuz to prevent oil from getting to market — which will do nothing but send Big Oil’s prices and profits sky high.

Either way, it’s a win for the Corporate Feudalists, and once again, American consumers and European consumers are on the hot seat to pay for it, just as they pay for the tariffs being applied to all consumer commodities.

Tariffs are a quick way for governments to extract more tax money out of the living people, because tariffs get added to the endline cost to the consumer. All they do is suppress overall trade and protect domestic markets.

So all Trump’s policies are, in the end, increasing consumer costs, suppressing trade, and — in exchange for short term cash profits for the government —gearing into a slow down of the economy.

The “Dutch Empire” template is on full display and running its course:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qc4WKnvThX4>

These shameless and violent acts taking place in Iran are not the result of any actual war; they are the harvest of an illegal commercial conflict disguised as a war 165 years ago—and the continuous application of known fraud schemes for purposes of resource extraction and unjust enrichment for over a century and a half.

Those who remember the past are not condemned to relive it.

Remember what we told you all about the three castes, the priests, the soldiers and the merchants. Remember the symbols associated with each of these castes.

The tear-drop shaped symbol of the priests echoes the symbols of the Zoroastrian (Persian) priests, known as the Magii, just as the name Syria echoes Sirius. Syria is named after the star system of Sirius A and B.

This history, too, is what they are trying to obscure and keep from the people of the world by destroying Iran, again, because Iran is the last bastion of true Zoroastrian teaching.

They hope to keep their depraved abuse of religion as a means to divide people and promote war a secret, but no, it has been ordained that all Truth will be poured out at this time, and their sins will be known — fully known.

Muslims will know they have been lied to and Christians will know they have been lied to and most of all, Jews will know they have been lied to.

The fire of truth is awakened; the holy spirit of the true God is awakened; the most ancient of ancients is awakened like a flame kindled from clean dry wood, and truth springs forth anew.

Just as the Learned Elders of Zion admitted, the Primal Creator will destroy all that is false.

This is what is hidden in Iran. This is what the Church fears most of all, and what the pawns are being sacrificed to hide:

Love of the truth is the true gift of the Magii. Not Frankincense. Not Myrrh. Not gold.

From now on, in the Age of Aquarius, all the mathematics will be true — not approximations any longer; all the equations will be complete, not left half-done to promote fraud against the living.

The true god remembers all of it, from first breath to last gasp, of man and of beast, and even the false life of the creations of men.

Even now the Liars are lying, filling the air with their deceits, claiming that out of 1,100 Iranian missiles aimed at US military bases, only three service members have been killed and five wounded. The real estimate some hours ago was 1600 dead and twice as many wounded.

Even the professional liars in the media are trembling in fear of the retribution they are owed.

That 1600 dead estimate was before Donald J. Trump, or the body-double playing his role, as it may be, called for another 100,000 sacrificial lambs.

Predictably, they are preparing to lay down “friendly fire” to kill their own troops, just as they killed their own currency with malice aforethought.

Remember that part of the excuse for this commercial conflict was the idea that the Iranian

Government was killing its own people — and it was, except that the Iranian Government has been controlled by the British since 1908.

So the British were killing all these people, and this is not hard to believe, given the mayhem in the British Isles for the past ten years: people jailed for speaking their minds, pensioner's money given away to illegal immigrants, housing paid for and belonging to the British people being given away to the same foreigners.

Why? Because the actual British population has been decimated by two hundred years of war-profiteering by these same immoral, criminal commercial corporations and banks, their bosses and their shareholders sitting in Parliament and ranging about as "The Committee of 300".

The British population can't recover within a hundred years. The same is true in America and throughout western Europe and even in Japan and the Philippines. Entire generations have been wiped out by these corporate crime syndicates and their war-mongering.

These evil corporations are operating as transnational crime syndicates in tandem with other criminal corporations; they are all using illegal interlocking trust directorates to enforce compliance, so that when one of them goes down, a form of mutually assured destruction kicks in.

If just one of the eight members of the Octagon Group is liquidated, for example, the remaining seven will close ranks to try to prevent a collapse of the whole structure. That is precisely what is happening right now. The Federal Reserve has been found dead, propped upright in a chair....and the others are scrambling, fifteen years after the fact.

The natural and indigenous populations of all these countries are vanishing amid a firestorm of lies about overpopulation and carbon dioxide emissions — but the truth is that the criminal commercial corporations have decimated the natural populations and are fast running out of taxpayers. They have to import new victims to keep their coffers full and play ugly illegal securitization fraud schemes based on the relative value of their "livestock" to keep the payola flowing.

Remember what Margaret Thatcher said about socialism — that the problem with socialism is that you eventually run out of other people's money.

The same can be said for war profiteering. You eventually run out of other people's lives.

Hail the Abyss, where these creatures of the mind, these pernicious legal fiction entities, belong.

These evil corporations must be "killed" to the extent that such vacuous constructs have any existence at all.

This time, there must be remedy, relief, and restitution. And a true Jubilee. And full disclosure.

So said, so signed, so sealed and testified to in the Alpha and Omega:
