

To Donald Trump and Vladimir Putin

International Public Notice

August 9, 2025

The United States of America —
Federation of States

You have no "Territories" to exchange.

Alaska and Hawaii, together with the Western United States and those States East of the Mississippi formed during the so-called Civil War, were officially enrolled as States of the Union on October 1st 2020, soon after our States were called back into Session.

There will be no swapping of anything, Mr. Trump.

So long as Mother Russia exists and is defined as a land jurisdiction belonging to the Russian People, Mr. Putin is similarly constrained by the American-Russian Alliance of 1858.

Whatever you gentlemen think you have and own and can trade on behalf of other people, needs to be deeply reconsidered in light of the actual history, actual material interests, actual Parties, and actual Law.

None of us are putting up with any more "representation" while we are sitting in the room with our hands up.
