International Public Notice: Damaged People

Over the course of its history the mercenary corporations that undermined and substituted themselves for the American Government have committed a lot of crimes at home and abroad, including crimes of omission.

Just today there was another big blow-out announcement of how two Dade County, Florida, judges were running a drug and human trafficking hub out of their mansion. Together, the pair had directly pardoned over 600 drug-and-or-smuggling offenders, so that they had a complete system going.

If any of their own mules got caught, they simply pardoned them from the bench.

A couple days before that, a similar story about a retired U.S. Marshal running a hub out of his private mansion rocked the airwaves.

People don't understand how this could be possible, and they are blaming "the government" --- not realizing that what they have identified as "the government" is actually a tag team of foreign corporations in the business of providing "essential government services", not the actual American Government at all.

Those "judges" weren't actually working for any public court. They were working for private corporate tribunals.

They didn't take any true public oath, have any public bonding, or hold any actual public office. They were "administrative court" judges, supposed to be engaged in the internal discipline of the corporations that have been providing us with "public services" --- all without being the public government.

You've had two gangs, representing two corporations, both in the business of providing government services --- vendors --- "representing" your actual government, which has been "absent, in interregnum" for decades.

Stop a moment. Grok this. Think about it. Seriously.

What you assumed was "your government" was actually a pair of private, for-profit, foreign government services providers, one corporation providing military services, the other providing federal civil services.

Is it really any surprise that these corporations became corrupt and got waaay off track? They went into business for themselves, just like the two judges caught in Dade County.

The military services provider sold our sons and daughters as cheap mercenaries to the highest bidders. The civil servants bought and sold our identities and other assets. Both of them preyed upon us in different ways.

As a result, we have a lot of damaged people. Some of them are severely damaged --- and most people are confused.

They confuse the service vendors with the actual government and vice versa. They come out swinging at the foreign service vendors and blame the actual government instead, not realizing the difference and not understanding that the actual government of, for, and by the people is in the process of restoration.

The damaged people are damaged not only by outrageous criminality on the part of what pretend to be our courts, but also by omission --- failure of these courts to protect.

No issue is more hot button than the discovery of ritual child abuse and child murder. Some of those damaged think that we, the actual American Government, are to blame -- though the American Government is just now getting back on its feet.

Instead of blaming, it's time to get involved and rebuild the public court system that Americans are owed. Realize that if you want honest public courts, you have to provide them yourselves. Nobody has that responsibility but you.

So it may not be comforting to hear, but if you were abused as a child or were the victim of ritual child abuse or sacrifice cults, you need to report it and give your testimony to the International Tribunal of Crimes of Church and State (ITCCS), because most of the true international courts owed to this country have been shut down and are just now in the process of reopening.

ITCCS however, is up and running and dedicated to prosecuting those who have committed these crimes against children, and has established itself as a credible and competent court of record addressing these crimes.

Here again for those needing their services is their short history and contact information:

The International Tribunal of Crimes of Church and State (ITCCS) and its adjunct International Common Law Court of Justice (ICLCJ) are common law courts of record established on June 15, 2010 under the Law of Nations.

Their documents, warrants, and evidence can be found in part at www.murderbydecree.com under ITCCS Updates, ITCCS Archives, and Video Evidence.

Listen to their public voice live every Sunday at 6 pm eastern at www.bbsradio.com/herewestand.

See the evidence of genocide in Canada at www.murderbydecree.com and at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rk4g5l7FcFc&list=PLYEnChrKOgm7aRDzbo6yfwzCEdMI2P8e&index=1>.

The Courts can also be contacted at itccsoffice@protonmail.com.

Don't curse the darkness; be part of the light. Understand that your government has been sidelined and substituted for, for decades. It's time to stand up again and rebuild the courts as they are meant to be. And in the meantime, if you or someone you know has been the victim of ritualized child abuse, ITCCS is here and has been patiently built over the past fifteen years to be able to address these issues.

By all means, join the effort to get the American Common Law justice system up and fully operational again, but in the meantime, don't wait. It is the duty of every living man and woman to report crime and to do whatever they reasonably can to prevent crime---especially when the most vulnerable among us are at risk. Make use of the service ITCCS is offering.
